I am writing to confirm the outcome of your attendance at { MERGEFIELD TK_POL_STN_INIT_TK_POL_STATION_name } on { MERGEFIELD TK_POL_STN_INIT_TK_ARREST_DT } when I represented you. You were being interviewed in connection with an allegation of { MERGEFIELD MATTER_MATTER_DESCRIPTION **}.

I received a briefing from the police officer before the interview and I discussed that with you. You told me that [free text]. I advised you that [free text]. You decided that you would { MERGEFIELD TK_POL_STN_ATT_TK_INTVW_OUTCM **}.

Following the interview, the police decided to release you on police bail whilst they continue their enquiries. You therefore have to return to { MERGEFIELD TK_POL_STN_INIT_TK_POL_STATION_name } on { MERGEFIELD TK_POL_STN_ATT_TK_BAIL_DT } at { MERGEFIELD TK_POL_STN_ATT_TK_BAIL_TM **}.

You were released on { MERGEFIELD TK_BAIL_STATUS_TK_BAIL_STATUS **}.

We will endeavour to make contact with the police officer shortly before that date to see if you are to be further interviewed or if a decision has been made whether or not to charge you. If you are to be interviewed again, either myself or a colleague will be present and you should not agree to speak to the police again without having had further advice from us.

If you hear from the police in the meantime, to cancel or change your bail date, please let us know as soon as you can.

I am enclosing copy of our Terms of Business. This contains information which I am obliged to send to you. The cost of your representation at the police station itself is covered by the police station legal aid scheme - our Terms of Business document has further details.

I hope that all the above is clear but if you have any queries please do not hesitate to contact me or one of my colleagues in the office.

With best wishes

Yours sincerely
